MORGAN WALLEN — NEXT 3 SHOWS AT A GLANCE

- Apr 16: Wallen & Wilson tribute at Thunder Valley Casino, Lincoln, CA — doors at 7:30 PM.
- Apr 18: Bryant-Denny Stadium, Tuscaloosa, AL — Ella Langley, Vincent Mason & Zach John King open.
- May 1: Allegiant Stadium, Las Vegas, NV — doors at 5:30 PM with Brooks & Dunn headlining support.
- All three events have verified tickets available — check each show's page for current pricing and availability.

Morgan Wallen's Still The Problem Tour is in full swing, and three more shows are almost here. A tribute night in Northern California on April 16 kicks things off, followed by one of the tour's most-anticipated college stadium stops — Bryant-Denny Stadium in Tuscaloosa, Alabama on April 18. Then the tour hits Las Vegas for the first of two nights at Allegiant Stadium on May 1. Here's everything fans need before they go.

Apr 16 — Wallen & Wilson Tribute, Thunder Valley Casino

APR 16

Wallen & Wilson Tribute Show

The Venue at Thunder Valley Casino · Lincoln, CA

Doors 7:30 PM · Tribute Night

See Tickets & Full Details

> Heads up: This is a tribute show — not a Morgan Wallen concert. The performance celebrates the music of Morgan Wallen and Lainey Wilson, performed by tribute artists. Morgan Wallen himself does not appear.

The Wallen & Wilson tribute at Thunder Valley Casino in Lincoln, California gives fans in the Sacramento area a chance to hear the biggest hits from both artists live. The Venue at Thunder Valley holds a few thousand fans, making it an intimate setting compared to the stadium shows on the main tour. Doors open at 7:30 PM.

For Northern California fans who can't make one of the stadium dates, this is a solid option — and the casino venue means easy parking and amenities right on-site. Check the full details and current ticket availability before heading out.

Apr 18 — Tuscaloosa, Alabama at Bryant-Denny Stadium

APR 18

Morgan Wallen — Still The Problem Tour

Bryant-Denny Stadium · Tuscaloosa, AL

College Football Stadium · Show Time TBD

OPENING ACTS

Ella Langley · Vincent Mason · Zach John King

Tuscaloosa is one of the most unique stops on the entire 2026 run. Bryant-Denny Stadium — home of the Alabama Crimson Tide and one of college football's most iconic venues — brings a different energy to a Morgan Wallen concert. The field-level and lower bowl experience here is unlike anything you get at a traditional NFL stadium.

Ella Langley opens the Tuscaloosa night, bringing the gritty southern-rock energy that made her one of the breakout voices in country music over the past two years. Zach John King and Vincent Mason round out the bill earlier in the evening.

The show time is still to be confirmed — check the Tuscaloosa event page for updates. If you're driving in from Birmingham, Montgomery, or anywhere in central Alabama, plan for tailgate-style traffic around the stadium. Parking on campus and in downtown Tuscaloosa fills fast.

> One night only in Alabama. Unlike most markets on this tour, Tuscaloosa gets just one night. Wallen plays two nights in most cities, so this single-show stop carries extra urgency for Alabama fans.

May 1 — Las Vegas at Allegiant Stadium (Night 1)

MAY 1

Morgan Wallen — Still The Problem Tour

Allegiant Stadium · Las Vegas, NV

Doors 5:30 PM · Domed Stadium

OPENING ACTS — NIGHT 1

Brooks & Dunn · Gavin Adcock · Vincent Mason

Las Vegas gets two nights, but May 1 has the lineup that will have long-time country fans talking. Brooks & Dunn — Kix Brooks and Ronnie Dunn, the most awarded duo in country music history — open Night 1. Hearing "Neon Moon" and "Boot Scootin' Boogie" echo through Allegiant Stadium's dome before Morgan Wallen takes the stage is the kind of night that doesn't come around often.

Allegiant Stadium is a climate-controlled, fully domed venue in Paradise, Nevada. The dome means no weather concerns and top-tier acoustics. Doors open at 5:30 PM — earlier than most stops on this tour — so plan to arrive in time for the full bill.

Gavin Adcock opens the show earlier in the evening. The Tennessee singer-songwriter has been one of the standout early-set performers all tour long, and Vegas Night 1 is no exception. The full Las Vegas guide covers both nights, parking, hotel proximity to the stadium, and what to expect from each lineup.

> Night 2 (May 2) features Thomas Rhett in place of Brooks & Dunn. If you can only catch one Vegas night, the lineup difference is worth factoring in. Both nights are still available — check the Las Vegas page for current seat options.

What to Expect From the Still The Problem Setlist

Morgan Wallen typically runs a 27-to-30 song set on this tour. The full 2026 Still The Problem setlist leans heavily on his latest album, I'm the Problem, while pulling in fan favorites from Dangerous and One Thing At A Time. Expect "Last Night," "Whiskey Glasses," "Sand In My Boots," and "Wasted on You" alongside newer tracks like "20 Cigarettes," "I Got Better," and "I'm The Problem."

The set runs approximately two and a half hours, including a mid-show acoustic segment and a multi-song encore. Wallen typically takes the stage between 75 and 90 minutes after doors, depending on the number of openers.

Why These Shows Matter Right Now

Morgan Wallen arrives at these three dates with serious momentum. The RIAA recently confirmed him as the highest-certified country artist of all time, with 265.5 million certified units. His fourth studio album, I'm the Problem, spent 13 non-consecutive weeks atop the Billboard 200 and became the No. 1 album on Spotify in the U.S., all-genre, for 2025. "20 Cigarettes" became his milestone 20th No. 1 on the Country Airplay chart in February 2026.

For a deeper look at how Morgan Wallen became country music's defining artist of this era, the full artist profile covers his rise from East Tennessee to the stadium circuit — and why this tour is the biggest moment of his career so far.

A portion of every ticket sold on the Still The Problem Tour benefits the Morgan Wallen Foundation, which supports youth sports and music programs. The Foundation's Tour Give Back initiative has contributed more than $1 million in instruments to schools in touring cities.

Frequently Asked Questions

Is the April 16 Thunder Valley show actually Morgan Wallen performing?

No. The April 16 event at The Venue at Thunder Valley Casino in Lincoln, California is a tribute concert — Wallen & Wilson — celebrating the music of Morgan Wallen and Lainey Wilson. The performance features tribute artists, not Morgan Wallen or Lainey Wilson themselves. It's a great option for fans in the Sacramento area who want to hear those songs live in an intimate venue setting.

Who opens for Morgan Wallen in Tuscaloosa on April 18?

Ella Langley, Vincent Mason, and Zach John King open the Tuscaloosa show at Bryant-Denny Stadium on April 18, 2026. Ella Langley takes the direct support slot, meaning she performs closest to Morgan Wallen's set time. Vincent Mason and Zach John King perform earlier in the evening. Show time is TBD — check the Tuscaloosa event page for confirmed timing closer to the date.

What time do doors open for the Las Vegas show on May 1?

Doors open at 5:30 PM for the Morgan Wallen Las Vegas Night 1 show at Allegiant Stadium on May 1, 2026. This is earlier than most stops on the Still The Problem Tour, which typically open at 6:00–6:30 PM. With Brooks & Dunn, Gavin Adcock, and Vincent Mason all performing before Wallen takes the stage, arriving early is worthwhile.

Is there a May 2 Las Vegas show as well?

Yes. Morgan Wallen plays two consecutive nights at Allegiant Stadium in Las Vegas — May 1 and May 2, 2026. Night 1 (May 1) features Brooks & Dunn as direct support, Night 2 (May 2) features Thomas Rhett in the direct support slot. Gavin Adcock and Vincent Mason appear on both nights. Both dates are part of the Still The Problem Tour promoted by AEG Presents.

Does Bryant-Denny Stadium have assigned seating for the Tuscaloosa concert?

Yes. Bryant-Denny Stadium uses assigned seating for concert events. The stadium has a capacity of over 100,000 for football games, though concert configurations typically use a reduced footprint. Field-level pit access, lower bowl, and upper deck sections are all available depending on what was released for this date. Check the Tuscaloosa event page for the current seat map and available sections.

Where can I find verified tickets for all three shows?

Each event has its own page on morganwalentickets.com with verified ticket options and current availability. Use the Thunder Valley page for the April 16 tribute show, the Tuscaloosa page for April 18 at Bryant-Denny Stadium, and the Las Vegas page for May 1 and May 2 at Allegiant Stadium. The homepage also lists every date on the 2026 Still The Problem Tour in one place.
